DESCRIPTION

Corner seat is another model from the modular collection of The City Lounge. Thanks to its compact size, seat perfectly fits in with a small City Lounge planter. Corner seat can be successfully used to create meeting space, by setting models in front of each other. Corner seat is made of stainless steel and wood. The customer can choose both from domestic wood - pine or spruce, and, on special order, from exotic species. Corner seat is an original form of street architecture, suitable for the character of every urban area.
