DESCRIPTION

The round steel table, with a perforated top, is a perfect addition to the furnishings of a café, bar or restaurant. Designed primarily for outdoor use, it can also be successfully used indoors. The sturdy and heavy steel construction allows it to be fixed to the ground, but will also work well as a free-standing piece of furniture. The customer has the option of choosing between an all stainless steel or carbon steel version, galvanised and powder-coated in any RAL colour.
